1. Introduction

On 9 March 2001, the Promotion of Access to Information Act, No.2 of 2000 ("the Act") became operative, giving effect to section 32(2) of the Constitutional right of access to information.

One of the main requirements specified in the Act, is the compilation of an information manual that provides information on both the types and categories of records held by a private body.

This document serves as the private body's information manual and provides reference to the records held by the private body and the process to request access to such records.

2. Information about the private body

The company is engaged in development, marketing and administration of computer software and operates principally in South Africa.

8. Access request procedures

Section 51(1)(e)

8.1 Completion of Access Request Form

In order to facilitate a timely response to requests for access, all requesters should take note of the following when completing the Access Request Form:

- The Access Request Form must be completed. (An Access Request Form can be found in Section 11 of this manual.)
- Proof of identity is required to authenticate the identity of the requester. Therefore in addition to the access form, requesters will be required to supply a copy of their identification document.
- Type or print in BLOCK LETTERS an answer to every question.
- If a question does not apply, state "N/A" in response to that question.
- If there is nothing to disclose in reply to a particular question state "nil" in response to that question.
- If there is insufficient space on a printed form, additional information may be provided on an additional attached folio.
- When the use of an additional folio is required, precede each answer with the applicable title.

8.2 Submission of Access Request Form

The completed Access Request Form together with a copy of the identity document must be submitted either via conventional mail, e-mail or fax and must be addressed to the contact person as indicated above.

The fee is not applicable to Personal Requesters, referring to any person seeking access to records that contain their personal information.

An initial, request fee of R57.00 (incl. VAT) is payable on submission.

8.3 Payment of Fees

Payment details can be obtained from the contact person as indicated above and can be made either via a direct deposit, by bank guaranteed cheque or by postal order (no credit card payments are accepted). Proof of payment must be supplied.

The access fee must be paid prior to access being given to the requested record.

If the request for access is successful an access fee may be required for the search, reproduction and/or preparation of the records(s) and will be calculated based on the Prescribed Fees. (A schedule of Prescribed Fees can be found in Section 10 of this manual).

If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the information officer concerned must repay the deposit to the requester.

8.4 Notification

The private body will within 30 days of receipt of the request decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect. The 30 day period within which the private body has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 days, if the request is for a large volume of information, or the request requires search for information held and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30 day period. The private body will notify the requester in writing should an extension be sought.

8.5 Grounds for refusal of access to records

The main grounds for refusal of a request for information are:

- Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person.
- Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains:
  - Trade secrets of that party;
  - Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that party;
  - Information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the private body if disclosure could put that third party to a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition.
- Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement;
- Mandatory protection of records which could be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;
- The commercial activities of the private body which may include:
  - Trade secrets of the private body
  - Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of the private body.

12. Other information as may be prescribed

Section 51(1)(f)

The Minister of Justice has prescribed no additional information to be contained in this Manual.
